

Lowell Odom

I feel that my role as a Physical Education teacher is to promote life-long health and wellness habits. This is best achieved by providing instruction in both psycho-motor and cognitive skills. Modeling sportsmanship, incorporating appropriate behavior and teamwork is part of my job as coach and instructor. Working in a Catholic school allows me to instill Christian values daily as I work with students.